Passenger lists for the ... of the date is reported in newspapers of the time and are not ... Passenger records were not kept until ... Some facts provided by Patrick L. Chandler are:

1. The name McKay is the same as Edith's maiden name. Several records indicate that McKay was born in Kentucky about 1786-1787. Jonathan was born in Virginia in 1786 and he and Edith (McKay) McCarty had 7 sons. Jonathan and family were in Nelson County, Kentucky from 1785 to 1798-99.

Some McCarty Family History

This family information is assembled and recorded so that it may be preserved and be available to other present and future family members.

The proof of the parents or place of birth of McKay McCarty born in 1797, died 14 July 1859, has not been documented. The old family tradition passed on by Reathel McCarty is that he was born in Ireland. Lawrence McCarty passed on the tradition that McKay, his great grandfather, was born in Ireland with the following information: "McKay McCarty, Jr., one of seven brothers, was born in Ireland in 1797. He left between 1812 and 1815, and landed on the East Coast of America. Going to Virginia, he married Nancy A. Lanham, then moved to Switzerland County, Indiana. From there they moved and settled in Noble Township, Shelby County, Indiana around an area known as Wilson Corner." Information provided by Evelyn E. (Hoban) Montgomery, a descendant of Elizabeth (McCarty) and Joseph Swinford, that has been passed on to her from her family (Lonnie and Alonzo Price) has McKay as a son of Jonathan and Edith (McKay) McCarty of the Darby and Hannah (Richardson) McCarty family. This information from Evelyn Montgomery seems to be the correct relationship as all available facts seem to show McKay as the son of Johnathan and Edith McCarty of the Darby McCarty family.

Some facts that have been determined: Records of Switzerland County, Indiana show that McKay McCarty married Nancy Lanham there 15 May 1819. In his application for a Bounty Land Claim made 9 November 1850, McKay stated that he volunteered in Jefferson County, Indiana on or about 13 October 1813 for a term of 12 months as a soldier in the War of 1812. Jefferson County joins Switzerland County, Indiana. (Page ix) (a34) The U.S. Census of Addison Township, Shelby County, Indiana lists McKay as born in Kentucky.

After many years of research, Patrick L. Chandler, 7500 York Ave. So., #831, Edina, Minnesota 55435 and James A. McCarty, 4174 Ellsworth Place, Gary, Indiana 46408 believe that McKay McCarty was a son of Jonathan and Edith (McKay) McCarty. Jonathan, born 29 April 1756, Shenandoah County, Virginia was a son of Darby and Hannah (Richardson) McCarty. This belief is based on the facts of the families being in the same areas at the same times and the same given name as Edith's maiden name. Also, research indicates that Jonathan had fifteen children but given names have only been documented for 12. McKay would make the 7th known son of Jonathan. In a check of the available passenger lists for the period 1812-1815, McKay or McCay could not be found. Passenger lists for the period are only as reported in newspapers of the time and are not available for the total period. Passenger records were not kept until 1820. Also, by his own statement, McKay was in Jefferson County, Indiana about 13 October 1813 and the U.S. Census of Addison Township, Shelby County, Indiana lists McKay as born in Kentucky.

Some facts provided by Patrick L. Chandler are:

1. The name McKay is the same as Edith's maiden name. Several records indicate that McKay was born in Kentucky about 1796-1797. Jonathan was born in Virginia in 1756 and he and Edith (McKay) McCarty had 7 sons. Jonathan and family were in Nelson County, Kentucky from 1785 to 1798-99

2. The Jonathan McCarty family arrived in what is now Jefferson County, Indiana in 1799 or 1800. The area was part of Clark County, then Dearborn and finally Jefferson County. Edith (McKay) McCarty had numerous relatives in Jefferson County. The Bible of Henry Lanham, father of Nancy (Lanham) McCarty, shows a number of births and deaths of McKays which indicates that the McCartys, McKays and Lanhams were well known to each other. The birth year of McKay fits in the Jonathan family, perfectly.

3. McKay McCarty enlisted in the First Ranger Battalion of the Regular Army 13 October 1813. This unit was composed of members picked for their woodman skills. It is doubtful that they would have enlisted a young inexperienced immigrant (McKay was only 16) as a scout. In the same unit were several sons of Jonathan and a number of related McKays.

4. On 24 December 1817, McKay McCarty, along with Enoch McCarty and several in-laws of the McCartys were charged with participation in a riot in Jefferson County. McKay McCarty is shown in the 1820 Census in both Jefferson and Decatur County, Indiana along with Jonathan, Enoch and other members of the tribe. McKay purchased land from the U.S. Government in November 1820 just a few days after Jonathan had done the same thing. It is more likely than not that the extended family of Jonathan McCarty all moved to Shelby and Decatur County, Indiana in 1820.

James A. McCarty, 4174 Ellsworth Place, Gary, Indiana 46408 has provided the following information pertaining to Henry Lanham:

"The father of Nancy Lanham was Henry Lanham, born 28 May 1761 and died 20 May 1849. Her mother was Eleanor (McKay) born 1765. If you or your daughters or granddaughters are interested in becoming a member of the DAR, Henry Lanham was a Revolutionary War Soldier. He enlisted 3 Feb. 1776 in 2nd Company, Maryland Troops. He is buried in the McKay Cemetery Bratton, Indiana.

Some information on the McCarthy family in Ireland is as follows: There are several spellings of the name as is the case with most- McCarthy, Carty, McCarter, McCart (Darby's marriage record has it Carty). The early McCarthys in Ireland were in Cork and Kerry Counties. Of 160 castles in Cork County, 26 were built by McCarthy Mar. Larry McCarty has written 'The McCarthy Family' written by M.J. O'Brian says 'The McCartys, one of the ancient families of Ireland, have furnished princes and men of eminence from McCarthy Mar down to Justin McCarthy.' The founder of the family was Cormac, King Munster, A.D. 483. (Burke declared that few pedigrees in the British Empire can be traced to a more exalted source than that of the Celtic House of McCarthy.)

Thirty of the Kings of Ireland and sixty-one of the saints descended from the McCartys, and to them belong the matchless glory of producing the first Christian King in Ireland.

William and Mary were the first white settlers in the area. The McCartys, McKays and McGees are all from the same place at the same time.

JONATHAN McCARTY

By Robert W. Scott

© 1998

Jonathan McCarty, a pioneer of Jefferson Co., lived 29 April 1756-15 Feb. 1827. Born in the Shenandoah region, he was son of Darby McCarty and Hannah Richardson, who had moved to Virginia from Philadelphia.

Jonathan served as Captain of Militia in Shenandoah Co. in 1782. He is listed in the 1783 and 1784 in the Shenandoah Co., Va., tax lists that serve as the "1790 census." The McCartys moved to the Plum Run area of Nelson Co., Ky., by 1785 when Jonathan's brother, Enoch, received a land grant there. On 28 Dec. 1785 Jonathan is on a jury in Nelson Co. He appears on a tax list in 1786 that included Beech Fork with one white, one horse and three cattle.

Jonathan co-owned land on Froman's Creek in Nelson Co., along with Paul Froman, who later moved to Switzerland Co., although their connection is not known. McCarty and Froman sold this land to George Mitchell on 14 May 1793. Jonathan is listed 1795 in Nelson Co. with one white male older than 21, three horses, 13 cows, 121 acres and one slave.

Jonathan was still a Kentucky resident on Feb. 28, 1798 when he is reported as Captain of Kentucky Militia for Nelson Co., 27th Regiment. He may have moved to Indiana as early as 1799. According to one descendant, he was appointed that year as a justice of the peace in Hamilton Co., Ohio, which then included what is now Switzerland Co. His daughter, Lydia, married Gershom Lee 1800 in Gallatin Co., Ky. Jonathan could have lived in Indiana at that time and returned to Kentucky to be married because of a lack of ministers (this happened with other early area settlers.)

Jonathan was definitely in Indiana in 1803 when he was named Justice of the peace for Dearborn Co., which then included the area of Switzerland Co. as far west as the Greenville Treaty line.

Son, Enoch, is listed in the 1807 Indiana Territorial Census for Dearborn Co. He acquired the NW1/4 Sec. 30 Twp. 4N Range 12E 7 Sept. 1809. This land is in Milton Township in what is now Jefferson Co. where Dry Fork meets the Indian-Kentuck Creek. By December 1809, the family had definitely moved to this area as two of Jonathan's children married two Howards in December 1809 in what was then Clark Co.

The first direct evidence of Jonathan in Jefferson Co. comes on 9 March 1810 when he registered an estray mark in Clark Co., and listed as a resident of Indian-Kentuck. His next record comes when he sued John Lee, who had patented 160 acres in the NW 1/4 Section 30 Twp. 4N Range 12E on Dec. 1, 1809, land in Milton Township. In 1811, McCarty sued Lee for trespass, claiming he leased land owned by Lee for a year until 31 Jan. 1811.

A History of Milton Twp. written sometime after 1909 for the Jefferson Co. Historical Society, says that when Jacob Short came to Milton Township in April 1810, he found McCarty living on a three-acre patch near the area later occupied by George Rowlinson (who owned land near the modern Rowilson's Lake).

Besides serving as Justice of the Peace in both Dearborn and Jefferson Cos., Jonathan was also a Post Master. An early Madison paper said he resigned as postmaster at Pittsburgh Township in 1818.

Jonathan married Edith McKay, whose brother Robert McKay settled 1808 on a farm near Lamb, Switzerland Co. The widow and children of Robert McKay's brother James settled at Lamb about 1804 and the McKays may have followed the McCartys to Indiana.

McCarty moved to Decatur Co. in 1821, along with son-in-law Gershom Lee Edith died after 1850 when she was listed in the Adams Township, Decatur Co., census.

The McCartys had 15 children according to Virginia court papers regarding a suit between the heirs of Robert McKay (Edith's grandfather) and Lord Fairfax, which had lingered from the mid 1700s until 1823. Jonathan's four youngest sons are named in his will. Others are established by marriage records and family traditions. However, no one has been able to establish the names of all 15 children reliably.

Children of Jonathan McCarty

1. Rachel McCarty b. ca. 1780 She m. 13 Dec. 1796 in Nelson Co., Ky., William McKay, who died 14 Dec. 1840. They briefly to Jefferson Co., but returned to Nelson Co. after 1820. Jonathan is listed as father on the marriage record.
2. Enoch McCarty 2 Nov. 1782-25 May 1839 m. 29 Dec. 1809 in Clark Co., Ind. Rebecca Howard, who died 1837. Assumed to be a son.
3. Nancy McCarty 24 Feb. 1785-30 Dec. 1874 m. 17 Sept. 1801 in Gallatin Co., Ky. James Wilson. Jonathan is listed as father on the marriage record.

4. Elizabeth McCarty 31 May 1793-26 Dec. 1875 m. 29 Dec. 1809 in Clark Co. Joseph Howard. Some family records conclude say Joseph died by 1816 or so and that Elizabeth m. 2nd 23 May 1822 in Jefferson Co. John Neal. But, this is not possible. Elizabeth daughter of Joseph Howard was age 15 when Joseph's estate was probated in 1818 and married John Neal as she later sold her interest in Joseph's estate. So, Jonathan's daughter Elizabeth apparently married another Joseph Howard.

Prof. J. H. Goldstein
Department of Chemistry
University of Chicago
Chicago, Illinois 60637

Dear Professor Goldstein:

I am writing to you regarding the results of the experiments conducted by me and my colleagues in the Department of Chemistry, University of Chicago, during the past few months.

The experiments were designed to study the effect of temperature on the rate of reaction between the two substances. The results show that the rate of reaction increases with increasing temperature, as expected from the Arrhenius equation.

The data obtained from the experiments are as follows:

Temperature (°C)	Rate of Reaction (mol/l·sec)
25	0.012
35	0.025
45	0.050
55	0.100

These results are in good agreement with the theoretical predictions. The activation energy of the reaction has been determined to be 15.0 kJ/mol.

Very truly yours,
J. H. Goldstein

Some DeBaun Family History

Joost DeBaun was the first member of the family in America. He and his wife, Elizabeth (Drabbe) and eldest son, Jacobus in 1683 arrived in Bushwick, Long Island, New York from Middleburg, Holland. He was born in Beaune, Cote d'Or, France, about 1642, a French Huguenot, or Protestant, by religion. A Huguenot whose family was subjected to torture and massacre, he, reportedly the last living member, fled to Flanders about 1670 where he married but his wife lived only a few years. (The Edict of Nantes which had established the legal toleration of France's Protestant population was issued by Henry IV in 1598 and revoked 18 October 1685 by King Louis the 14th of France.) He removed to Middleburg, Holland, where he changed his name (from Joseph) to Joost DeBaene and married Elizabeth Drabbe, a Hollander. The name Drabbe appears among the well-to-do families in Holland with their own coat of arms. Joost, with his education, obvious high standing among the colonists, his adaptability in changing his language so effectively was without doubt of excellent family background.

Was town clerk of Bushwick, about a year, then in New Utrecht, New York, was clerk, schoolmaster and reader of the Reformed Dutch Church. He was in New Rochelle, New York between 1698 to 1702 where he was schoolmaster as well as holding other offices. His name is on the bronze tablet (Joost De Bane) of the Huguenot Monument erected in Hudson Park, New Rochelle, N.Y. in 1938.

In 1704 he settled near Hackensack, New Jersey where he engaged in farming the rest of his life. He died between 1718 and 1722 and his widow, Elizabeth, probably died in 1724. Their place of burial is unknown.

Dear Leroy Limpus,

You may know this - a customer in Florida has learned that Mr. Fitz Randolph whose book contained some Talbert material has been deceased for several years but his family state that we are free to xerox pages from it. No more books are available. So if you want the line of Wm. Talbert's wife back to the early days let me know.

The Family of McKay and Nancy A. (Lanham) McCarty

1.M- McKay McCarty-also known as McCay McCarty-, b. 1797, KY?, d 14 July 1859, Addison Township, Shelby County, Ind. Bur. at Lewis Creek Bapt. Cem., Shelby Co., Ind. One of the early settlers of Shelby County, purchased land in Nov 1820, where he farmed and raised his family. On 9 Nov 1850 he signed a Bounty Land Claim with his mark in which he stated that he enlisted in the Regular Army 13 Oct 1813 at Madison, Jefferson County, Indiana for a term of 12 months during the War of 1812. He was married 15 May 1819 in Switzerland Co., Ind and the 1820 census lists him in Jefferson Co. which joins Switzerland Co. From the records it appears that he and his family moved to Shelby Co., Ind in 1820. His stone in the Cemetery has McCay McCarty.

The following is as reported in The Shelby Volunteer dated Thursday, Jul 21, 1859: 'On Thursday last, McKay McCarty, an old resident of this county, and well known to most of our citizens, was found dead in the road near his residence in Addison Township. It appears that about ten o'clock that morning, he started to go to his son's, some two miles distant. No more was heard of him until about one or two o'clock, when word was brought that he was laying dead beside the road, about a half mile from the place he had left in the morning. He was about 65 years of age, and for many years has been addicted to the immoderate use of strong drink, and lately has been subjected to spasms, producing a general prostration of the system. The supposition is that he was seized with one of these spasms and sank down or what is quite probable was prostrated by sun stroke, as the day was excessively warm. Justice Hacker was summoned to hold an inquest over the remains, but as there seemed no necessity for it, his relatives and those present being of one opinion as to the cause of his death, the idea was abandoned.'

ast at Portage steel

The workers apparently were caught in a blast of superheated steam Thursday night after water met with molten steel in the electric arc furnace at Beta Steel in Portage, Indiana. Occupational Safety and Health Administration Deputy Commissioner Jeffrey Carter said.

"We are fairly convinced it was a steam explosion," he said.

The Portage Fire Department said one worker died at the scene and the others were taken to hospitals with steam burns. Their conditions were not immediately available Friday, but Beta Steel spokesman Joseph M. Gazarkeiwicz said their injuries were not life threatening.

Porter County Coroner Vicki Deppe said worker Michael Kies, 35, of Griffith, died from head injuries he suffered in the explosion.

Company and fire officials did not release the names of the injured.

PRESENTATION OF FLAGS TO THE SIXTH REGIMENT INFANTRY CIVIL WAR.

The ladies of Madison, through the Hon. John R. Cravens, Presented Capt. Sullivan's company with a splendid new silk banner at Camp Morton, on Saturday, April 20. Mr. Cravens, in presenting it, made an eloquent and patriotic speech, and Capt. Sullivan did the same in accepting it on behalf of his company. The Madison's guards are a noble set of fellows and the ladies "on the hill" are as full of patriotism as their friends and relatives who have volunteered to fight the battles of freedom and uphold the honor of our flag.

INDIANAPOLIS JOURNAL, APRIL 22, 1861.

(note--We have no information as to what became of this flag.-----McCormick. 1921.)

The loyal of Louisville, Kentucky, have completed four flags to be presented to four regiments that won the battle of Somerset. They are all inscribed " Mill Springs, January 19, 1862. Presented by the loyal ladies of Louisville."

INDIANAPOLIS JOURNAL, FEBRUARY 14, 1862

The Madison Courier says, "The veteran 6th Indiana regiment (the first to rush to the rescue of Louisville when the citizens called for help from Indiana one year ago), after a weary march from Louisville to Mississippi and Alabama, almost 300 miles, has marched back over the same ground, and all that is left of that gallant band of Hoosiers are now at Louisville, lying on their arms, resting from their labors.

Companies that went into Kentucky with this regiment numbering over ninety men cannot muster more than twenty-five. The beautiful national flag presented to this regiment near Nolin by the ladies of Louisville, about ten months ago, is so disfigured from exposure to weather and battle that it could hardly be recognized by its fair donors. when unfurled to their gaze, we are told, it brought tears to many eyes.

INDIANAPOLIS JOURNAL, October 3, 1862

TWO MORE REGIMENTS

Wednesday night, May 29, about 8 o'clock, Colonel Dumont's regiment, the Seventh, took cars on the Bellefontaine Road for their eastern destination. They slipped off very quietly-going aboard the train on the side track near the barracks. There was but a small crowd, comparatively, present at their departure.

May 31, 1861

Yesterday morning, (May 30) about 6 o'clock, Colonel Crittenden's regiment, the Sixth, left for Wheeling via the Indianapolis and Cincinnati railroad. They will reach their destination tonight. Both regiments are armed with the Minie rifles and are equipped in a very superior manner in every respect. We venture to say no regiment will make a better appearance on Virginia soil than the three Indiana has sent south of the Ohio River.

Indianapolis Journal, May 31, 1861

We regret to learn that the flag presented by the ladies of Louisville to the Sixth Indiana regiment was accidentally destroyed by fire in the camp at Green River, a few days ago. A correspondent of the Louisville Journal says: "By some accident or other a fire broke out in the tent occupied by the Non-commissioned staff, in which tent the flag had been placed, and before it (the flag) could be reached, the flames had not only penetrated its oil-cloth covering but had also marred the silken folds of the beautiful flag itself in such a manner that it will never be fit to wave again over the heads of the brave men who fairly adored it and who looked upon it as a presaging emblem of victorious fields yet to be won.

Indianapolis Journal, February 5, 1862.

The Louisville Journal says: we are happy to state that the flag presented to the 6th regiment Indiana Volunteers by the ladies of the Sixth Ward of this city has not been destroyed by fire as reported. It was a little discolored by the smoke of some blazing straw in a tent at Green River, but it can and will yet wave proudly amid the roar and smoke of battle.

Indianapolis Journal, Feb. 7, 1862

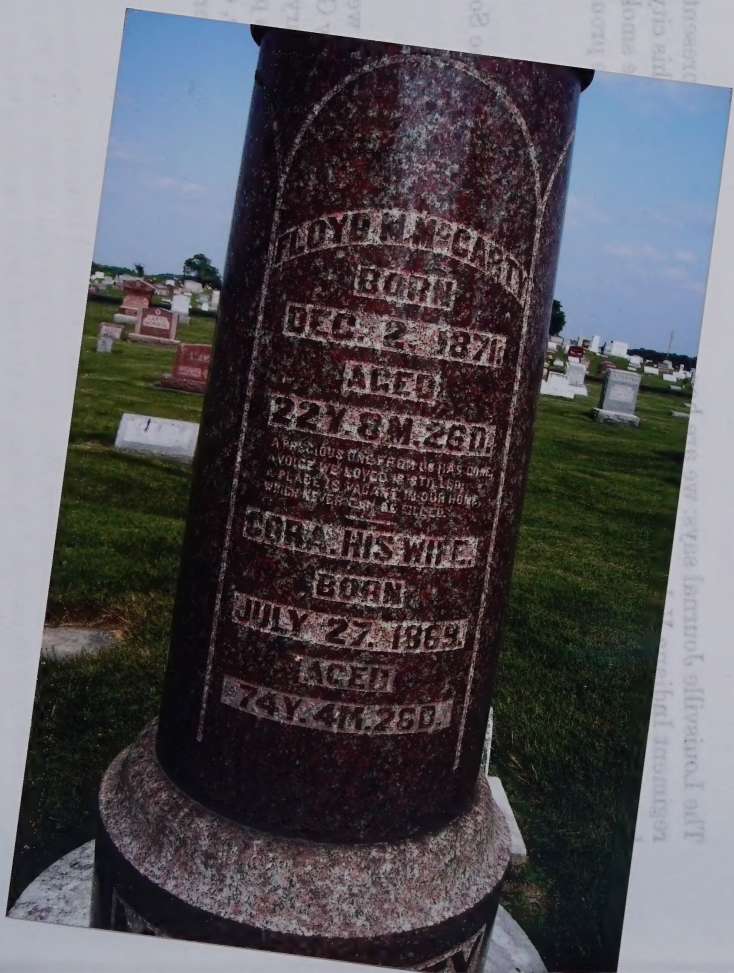

The 6th Indiana, two hundred and ninety-one strong, arrived at the Soldiers Home yesterday in command of Lieutenant Colonel Campell.

Indianapolis Journal, September 17, 1864.

Yesterday the returned veterans of the 6th, 7th and 36th regiments were publicly received in the State House Square. Eloquent speeches were made by Governor Morton, Generals Gross and Dumont, and Colonels Tripp, Grover, Cary and Bennett. We regret exceedingly that the crowded state of our columns precludes even a synopsis of the remarks of these gentlemen. They were all able, earnest, eloquent and pointed, and were received with loud cheers by the soldiers.

Governor Morton read sketches of the services of the three regiments.

Notes

Conflicting info says Nancy's birthdate was 24 Feb 1846, instead of Aug. Information in her obituary and Lewis Creek Baptist Cemetery listings confirm 24 Feb 1846 as her date of birth.

The 1880 Census of Shelby Co., Indiana, Addison Twp, lists Nancy A. Swinford as being a widow living in the home of her father, James E. Harrell. It lists her age as 34 and lists all five of her children. Page 243.

Nancy Ann was the grandmother of Verlie Ensminger, who I (Olive) visited as a child in 1955 near Shelbyville, IN.

James Henry Harrell

James Henry Harrell, a native of this county, died in this city at 10:30 o'clock last night at the home of his brother-in-law, Sheriff John H. Butler. Death resulted from blood poisoning, which developed from a cancer on his leg from which he had been suffering for more than a year. Mr. Harrell was for many years a resident of Shelby township, and still owned a small farm there at the time of his death. About three years ago he sold a part of his land holding in this county and moved to Oklahoma, where he was developing a fine farm of one hundred and sixty acres. The cancer trouble, which finally resulted in his death, arose about a year ago and early this summer he came here and spent several months with relatives over the county while taking treatment for the cancer. Late in the fall he returned to his home in Oklahoma, but returned here only a few weeks ago to continue the cancer treatment. He was here for only a few days, however, being called back to Oklahoma by the serious illness of his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Edward Harrell, whose death is expected at any time. While in Oklahoma his own condition became critical and he sent for Sheriff Butler to come and bring him back here to die in the county of his birth. He reached this city just twenty-four hours before his death.

The funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock at the Lewis Creek church, Rev. S. D. Hawkins officiating. Interment in the Lewis Creek cemetery in charge of Stewart & Fix. The funeral cortage will leave the Butler home at one o'clock Wednesday afternoon. The casket will be open at the home from 4:30 until 9:00 o'clock this evening and from nine until one o'clock tomorrow.

THE LATE MRS. HARRELL
(From the Boonsboro (MD.) Times)

Mrs. Maggie Harrell, wife of Harry Harrell, (of Shelby County, Indiana) departed this life, Thursday July 15th, at 7:30 a.m., at the home of her sister, in this place, at the age of 29 years and 13 days. Mrs. Harrell suffered with that insidious disease, consumption, for more than a year. She was a lady who had many warm personal friends in our community, who learned with regret six months ago that her health was rapidly falling and who mourned with them that mourned when her death was announced. She bore her sufferings through her long illness with Christian fortitude, never murmuring, and during the last few weeks of her illness she anxiously looked for the time when her suffering would cease and she would be permitted to pass from the scene of this life into the life beyond. She was a consistent member of the Reformed church, at which church her funeral took place on Sunday morning, Rev. Miller, her pastor officiating, assisted by Rev. Hott, of the U. B. church. At the close of the discourse the pastor made some very appropriate and touching remarks about the many good graces of the deceased. She leaves a husband who spared nothing to alleviate her condition, he putting forth every human power in her behalf. In her death a devoted and kind husband loses an affectionate wife, and in this sad hour of affliction he has the sympathy of the people of this community. Deceased leaves a child nearly one year old and two brothers and a sister who share the sympathy of the community in this hour of trouble. The death of the deceased is peculiarly sad that she had been married only about two years. Her funeral was largely attended on Saturday and the remains laid to rest in our beautiful, silent city of the dead.

James Henry Harrell

James Henry Harrell, a native of this county, died in this city at 10:30 o'clock last night at the home of his brother-in-law, Sheriff John H. Butler. Death resulted from blood poisoning, which developed from a cancer on his leg from which he had been suffering for more than a year. Mr. Harrell was for many years a resident of Shelby township, and still owned a small farm there at the time of his death. About three years ago he sold a part of his land holding in this county and moved to Oklahoma, where he was developing a fine farm of one hundred and sixty acres. The cancer trouble, which finally resulted in his death, arose about a year ago and early this summer he came here and spent several months with relatives over the county while taking treatment for the cancer. Late in the fall he returned to his home in Oklahoma, but returned here only a few weeks ago to continue the cancer treatment. He was here for only a few days, however, being called back to Oklahoma by the serious illness of his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Edward Harrell, whose death is expected at any time. While in Oklahoma his own condition became critical and he sent for Sheriff Butler to come and bring him back here to die in the county of his birth. He reached this city just twenty-four hours before his death.

DEATHS - FUNERALS

The death of Mrs. Elizabeth Harrell, widow of the late Granville Harrell, occurred at Fairland Sunday evening at six o'clock, deceased lacking but one month of being eighty years of age.

Mrs. Harrell was one of the best known residents of Brandywine township. When her husband died last November, Mrs. Harrell was in very poor health and she had continued growing weaker until her death. For the past several weeks she has suffered greatly from cancer.

At the age of two years her parents moved to Shelby county from Virginia, the home of her birth. Seventy-eight years of an active, religious life in Shelby county have not been without their effect. Brandywine township, for years the home of the Harrell's, recognizes in her death the removal of one of the community's pioneers and a peerless woman and mother. Her home life was ideal, her community experiences the models of excellence. For many decades Mrs. Harrell was closely associated with the religious movements in her home community and in her death Christ loses a zealous laborer on earth who gains a pure soul in his home on high.

The surviving children are Mrs. Elizabeth Lacock, Mrs. Isabelle Johnston and J. B. Harrell, of Indianapolis, and Mrs. Clara Sedgwick, of Shelbyville, and Mrs. W. G. Storm, of Centralia, Kansas. Many other relatives and friends survive.

OBITUARY

William H. Harrell, son of J. W. and Lodema A. Harrell, was born February 7, 1860, and died April 26, 1889, aged 29 years, 2 months and 19 days.

Deceased was married to Laura Bishop, daughter of George H. and Jane Bishop, March 20, 1883, by Rev. F. M. Buchanan, and to them was born a daughter, Grace, aged 4 years and 1 month. William H. Harrell united with the East Union Baptist Church, February, 1884, of which he remained a faithful member. He was a good husband and a kind and loving father. He was a patient sufferer of typhoid pneumonia for a period of two weeks, never murmuring nor complaining, but ever obedient to the Master's will. One day, turning to his wife, he said: "Laura, if I can't get well, I am not afraid to die." He leaves a loving wife and daughter, a father, three sisters and five brothers, and a large concourse of relatives and friends who sincerely mourn their loss.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. F.M. Buchanan, of Indianapolis, at Brandywine, Sunday, April 28, 1889, at 2 o'clock p.m. The text was, "Forasmuch as some man will say, how are the dead raised up and with what body do they come?"—II Corinthians, 15th Chapter 35th Verse. THE LATE MRS. HARRELL (From the Boonsboro (MD.) Times)

Mrs. Maggie Harrell, wife of Harry Harrell, (of Shelby County, Indiana) departed this life, Thursday July 15th, at 7:30 a.m., at the home of her father, in this place, at the age of 29 years and 13 days. Mrs. Harrell suffered with that insidious disease, consumption, for more than a year. She was a lady who had many warm personal friends in our community, who learned with regret six months ago that her health was rapidly falling and who mourned with her when that mourned when her death was announced. She bore her sufferings through her long illness with Christian fortitude, never murmuring, and during the last few weeks of her illness she anxiously looked for the time when her suffering would cease and she would be permitted to pass from the scene of this life into the life beyond. She was a consistent member of the Reformed church, at which church her funeral took place on Sunday morning, Rev. Miller, her pastor officiating, assisted by Rev. Hott, of the U. B. church. At the close of the discourse the pastor made some very appropriate and touching remarks about the many good graces of the deceased. She leaves a husband who spared nothing to alleviate her condition, he putting forth every human power in her behalf. In her death a devoted and kind husband loses an affectionate wife, and in this sad hour of affliction he has the sympathy of the people of this community. Deceased leaves a child nearly one year old and two brothers and a sister who share the sympathy of the community in this hour of trouble. The death of the deceased is peculiarly sad that she had been married only about two years. Her funeral was largely attended on Saturday and the remains laid to rest in our beautiful, silent city of the dead.

IN MEMORIAM

Hattie Harrell, wife of John B. Harrell, departed this life November 27th, 1884. Her disease was typhoid fever, complicated with erysipelas, with which she suffered two weeks, when the Father that does no wrong called her to her heavenly home, "not made with hands, but eternal in the heavens." Hattie bore her sufferings, which were great, with resignation, never murmuring, and seemed only to be concerned about her husband and children's welfare. Hattie joined the M. E. Church at Fairland three years ago and was received into full membership, and led a worthy and consistent Christian life until her death. She leaves a husband and three little children to mourn her loss, besides father, mother, sisters, brothers and many friends. But we do not mourn as those who have hope.

OPERATING ROOM
Harrell Hospital and Sanatorium, Noblesville, Indiana 1908
Augusta Harrell and Dr. B. L. Lanyon

Augusta Myrl Harrell November 12, 1887-December 1963 married Jesse Dulin and was a nurse in the hospital. I am not sure if the other woman had a personal relationship with the family or not.

Augusta Myrl Harrell was the daughter of Dr. Madison Harrell and wife Margaret Theodora Huffman (married February 15, 1887 in Shelby County) and the granddaughter of George B Huffman & Mary Ann Plummer and Judge Wick "JW" Harrell & Lodema Ann Drake.

Harrell Hospital

Samuel S. Harrell, was born in Shelby County Indiana, the son of Judge Wick Harrell and his first wife Lodema Ann Drake. After graduate school, he and his brother Madison, settled in Noblesville, Hamilton County, Indiana and started a medical practice. Dr. Sam and his wife Vivian first lived in a log cabin and built a house in 1898. Their first two sons, Hahnemann Voss "Voss" Harrell and Samuel Runnels Harrell were born in the log cabin, and the third son, Maurice Ticer Harrell was born in the Harrell house, which is now on the Historic Register. Unconfirmed research indicates that President Theodore Roosevelt stayed in the home in 1902, about the time that the Harrells were known for entertaining governors and politicians.

The Harrell house served as a medical facility and evolved into one of the first hospitals in the state. By 1907, the house had outgrown its ability to serve as a hospital and a home, so the Harrell brothers built a larger facility in Hamilton County which opened in May 1908. Known as the Harrell Hospital and Sanatorium, Drs. Samuel and Madison Harrell employed a staff of five nurses, and it was unusual in that it served as a nurses' training school. Located at 148 N. 9th Street, Noblesville, Indiana, it was considered very modern for its time (both in procedures and equipment). Dr. Harrell was credited with performing one of the first blood transfusions in Indiana and possibly one of the first appendectomies on a family member. This facility was later sold to Hamilton County Jan 1, 1914 for $30,000 and administration was assumed by Mrs. Ida Goodlauder Webb, a registered nurse. She continued the nursing program and maintained two wards for county indigents. The hospital became known as the Riverview Hospital which in 1999 established the Dr. Samuel Harrell Society in honor of its prominent "founding father."

The Harrell House is described as a 7,200 sq. foot, 12 room, Queen Anne Victorian style house, with a multi-gabled roof with cast iron cresting, a polygonal tower capped by a cast-iron finial, wide, extended eaves with thick brackets, corbeled chimneys with crowning pots, stained glass windows on all three floors and a wrap-around classic revival raised porch along the east and north sides. The port and portico are supported by Tuscan columns. The exterior was created with molded plaster ceilings of anaglyph floral designs, ornately-carved, dark-stained oak woodwork and decorative tile work around the fireplaces. It is registered as an historic landmark. The architect is not known, but Mrs. William Voss (Mary Alice Miesse Voss), Dr. Harrell's mother-in-law, assisted in the design. A study of the home by researcher John Elliott describes it thus: "The home is a fine example of well maintained architecture. In its early years, it served as one of the town's first medical facilities. For years... a recognizable orientation point for the community." At one time, the house had alterations: side of porch enclosed 1931; aluminum siding (mid 1970's); rear entry enclosed and created small prep. room (1981-82), plus all utilities.

JOHN H. BUTLER DIED SUNDAY A.M.
Well Known Resident Of The City Succumbed
After Long Illness Funeral Services Will Be Held Tuesday Afternoon

----- John H. Butler, a life long resident of Shelby County, a prominent Democrat and a man with a wide acquaintance, died Sunday at his home, 313 South Tompkins street. His death was caused by lung trouble which he had suffered for the last two years. He contracted the disease in August, 1912, being afflicted at that time with a heavy cold which weakened his system to such an extent that tuberculosis set in. Mr. Butler fought hard to overcome the ravages of the disease which had afflicted him. Three months of last year he spent in Colorado. He secured some benefit there, but later returned home. Some time afterward he went to Alabama. There he was forced to undergo an operation. After returning to this county he lived in a tent for a time, but for the last few months, realizing that death was hovering near, he was at his home. During the last several weeks his condition was such that he was delirious a part of the time.

During all his illness he maintained a cheerful and jovial demeanor. Lying on a bed by a large window he would wave to his friends as they passed during the day. And when one would stop to converse with him for a few moments, Mr. Butler was the John of old.

Mr. Butler was the son of the late Joseph and Rhoda Butler. He was born on a farm in Shelby township, October 4, 1852, and at the time of his death was aged sixty-two years and fourteen days. He had lived in the county all of his life and in Shelbyville for fifteen years. When he moved to this city he erected a barn on a lot in South Tompkins street and run a livery there for a number of years. Later he turned the barn into a garage which he owned at the time of his death. Mr. Butler was married October 5, 1876, to Miss Eda Harrell. One son was born to them but died in infancy.

Besides the widow, Mr. Butler is survived by a half brother, James Butler, of Kokomo.

Always a Democrat and a hard worker, Mr. Butler was rewarded by his party which gave him the office of township assessor, which he held for five years. He was also sheriff of the county for two terms, holding this office from 1906 to 1910.

He was a member of the lodge of Odd Fellows at Smithland, the Daughters of Rebekah, the Red Men and Kiowa Council, Degree of Pocahontas. He had been a member of the Odd Fellows for thirty-four years.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock in the Lewis Creek Baptist church. Short funeral services will also be held at the late home at twelve-forty-five o'clock. The Rev. George W. Winfrey of Anderson will officiate. Burial will be made in the Lewis Creek cemetery in charge of Stewart & Fix.

Following are the names of the men who will act as pall bearers at the funeral service: John Hogue, Cecil Collins, Frank Fagel, James Courtney, James H. Williams and William Fix.

Schools of Shelby CoWashington Twp

In 1908, Washington Township had five brick schoolhouses and a total of 358 students. The picture below is believed to be one of these schools. The children below with x's on them are related somehow. The family line is Talbert. We are not related to the Bull-Talbert line. My Talbert's are primarily from the Washington Twp area. We moved into Shelbyville in the mid 1920's. Image contributed by Tammy

One-room Schoolhouse

Written by ~~Effie Monroe Conner~~ Effie Monroe Conner McCarty

This is the description of my father George Monroe's first school building. Pale building was located just east of my father's farm on ~~land~~ now owned by Henry Jones. We had a building on the Moore's ^{some} but ~~burnt it down~~ and so the patrons built another. The building was about 20 ft square, made of logs in the rough and daubed with mud. It had two windows covered with sheep skins and one door in the north east corner of the room, there was not a nail used in the construction of the building and so the door was hung with wooden hinges swung with wooden pins. We had natures own flooring just pure dirt. The ceiling was split out like rails, then covered with straw and then dirt was thrown over that to make it warm. The chimney was built in the west end of the room of mud and sticks. The fire place would take in back logs about five feet long, one large one at the bottom and a smaller one on top. The roof was made of ~~boards~~ boards and weighed down with poles. It took just about a week to build this building. The patrons had to cut the wood for the school. The teacher was hired by the day and he sure earned his money for he would go before day light and build the fires and then the building would scarcely be warm when the children would get there. We would go to school ~~was~~ before day light. We had no well but, a good mud hole in the winter time provided water. We thought it quite a privilege during school hours, to be the one selected to go get a bucket of water and give each a drink from the old gourd, and what a delight it was when they spill some water on the floor and it would freeze and then some kid would slip and fall. We had no clocks and so we had marks on the floor so we could tell the time by the position of the sun. I went to school when I was 3 1/2 years old. I was taken by my older brothers and sisters. I had to go to school or with my father to the clearings. We went to school just through the heavy woods - just followed the cow paths. My first teacher was my Uncle John Monroe.

James McCarty of Noble Twp. requested that this be published;

Sir-one of my children had been buried 18 years, the second 13 years and the third ten years. I raised them in order to remove them to another burying ground and the coffins were all sound. One, a poplar coffin, was the soundest of the three. On opening the 13 and 10 y old coffins, flesh was found on the bones of the one that had been buried 13 years.

 lists 3 sisters: Mrs Manford Price, Mrs Samuel Bray, Mrs Frank Stevens; 3 brothers: George Swinford of Clarkson, James(?) Swinford of Lebanon, and William Swinford of Lewis Creek. (I believe James is Joseph) (a32)

The U.S. Census of Furman TWP., Sullivan Co., Ind. taken 3-4 Aug 1870:

The relationship or/and given name of Ada Swinford listed with the William Thornburg family, above, may be questionable although she may be a daughter not shown in the 1870 census with the Joseph Swinford family. The Thomas Swinford must be William Thomas Swinford, younger brother of Joseph, Jemima's father. Thomas would be Jemima's Uncle. Thomas never married. From his obituary: " Thomas Swinford, 75 yrs old, a resident of Shelby Co. during his entire lifetime, died at his home in Shelby TWP following an extended illness. He has always been a farmer; was the son of the late Mr and Mrs Richard Swinford and is survived by a sister, Mrs Mariah Dill of Indianapolis; bur. at Parrish Cem." b ac 1848, d.ac 1923

Obituary of Henry McCarty published 21 Mar. 1928, Shelbyville paper

After a lingering illness caused by a complication of diseases, arising from senility, Henry McCarty, pioneer resident of Shelby County and affectionately known by hundreds as 'Uncle Henry' died at 4 O'clock this morning at the home of his granddaughter, Mrs. John Snyder, 1210 South Miller Street. Mr. McCarty had lived in Shelby County during his entire lifetime and was probably one of the best known aged residents of the Community.

Having spent eighty eight years in Shelby County, Mr. McCarty had witnessed the steady growth of the community from its early stages until the present day and he had always taken an active interest in this growth. Many of his stories and anecdotes more than a half century old were repeated to interested friends and relatives, and his death removes one of the most unusual characters in this section.

He was born in Washington Township April 19, 1840, and would have celebrated his eighty eighth anniversary next month. On Dec. 31, 1861, he was united in marriage with Miss Ellen Jane Eads, whose death occurred twenty-eight years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. McCarty were the parents of six children, four of whom survive. They are W.T. McCarty and Mrs Henry, of this city; Mrs Adam Dill of Jackson Township, and Isaac McCarty, of Anderson, Ind. Two other children, Mrs. Nancy Jackson and Frank McCarty, preceded him in death.

Subj: RE: CIVIL WAR VETS PICTURE
 Date: 4/14/06 2:17:33 P.M. US Eastern Standard Time
 From: Reference@indianahistory.org
 To: kkccarter@aol.com

Thank you for your recent inquiry. Unfortunately I was not able to find any further information about the veterans in the picture used in the Hoosier Genealogist article. I found the location of the original picture but only last names are included.

I found an entry for Thomas B. McCart in the 25th Regiment. He was in Company G and was from Orleans, Indiana. He mustered into the 25th on 19 August 1861 and mustered out on 17 July 1865.

I also searched our county histories for Warrick County but found no mention of a McCarty in the regiments raised in that county or in the town of Newburgh.

You might contact the Indiana State Archives (<http://www.ai.org/icpr/archives/>) as they have military records and may be able to provide further information.

I am sorry I could not be more helpful. Thank you for contacting the Indiana Historical Society.

Sincerely,

Betsy Caldwell

The annual gathering of the members of the Swinford and McCarty families was held Sunday at Mounds Park, Anderson. The annual reunion of the family was attended by about fifty persons from this county. The local people left here early Sunday morning in fifteen automobiles. One hundred and fifty Swinfords and McCartys spent the day at the park.

The following committees were also named; Advertising, Stephen Fix, of Kokoomo; Samuel Bray, Shelbyville, and Thomas and George Swinford, Anderson. Program, Mrs. Cora Sanders, Mrs. Sallie Spurlin and Wm. H. Swinford, all of this county.

The Family of McKay and Nancy A. (Lanham) McCarty

- 1.M- McKay McCarty-also known as McCay McCarty- b. 1797,
 d. 14 July 1859, Addison Township, Shelby Co., Ind.; bur. at Lewis Creek Bapt. Cem., Shelby Co., Ind.; one of the early settlers of Shelby County where he farmed and raised his family. On 9 Nov. 1850 he signed a Bounty Land Claim with his mark in which he stated that he enlisted in the Regular Army 13 Oct. 1813 at Madison, Jefferson County, Indiana for a term of 12 months during the War of 1812. He was married 15 May 1819 in Switzerland Co., Ind. and the 1820 census lists him in Jefferson Co. which joins Switzerland Co. From the records it appears that he and his family moved to Shelby Co., Ind.
 about 1820. His stone in the cemetery has McKay McCarty.

The following is as reported in The Shelby Volunteer dated Thursday July 21, 1859: 'On Thursday last, McKay McCarty, an old resident of this county, and well known to most of our citizens, was found dead in the road near his residence in Addison Township. It appears that about ten o'clock that morning, he started to go to his son's, some two miles distant. No more was heard of him until about one or two o'clock, when word was brought that he was laying dead beside the road, about a half mile from the place he had left in the morning.'
 'He was about 65 years of age, and for many years has been addicted to the immoderate use of strong drink, and lately has been subjected to spasms, producing a general prostration of the system. The supposition is that he was seized with one of these spasms and sank down or what is quite probable was prostrated by sun stroke, as the day was excessively warm. Justice Hacker was summoned to hold an inquest over the remains, but as there seemed no necessity for it, his relatives and those present being of one opinion as to the cause of his death, the idea was abandoned.'

After many years of research, Patrick L. Chandler, 2000 York Ave., St. Louis, Missouri 63103 and James A. McCarty, 4114 Elsworth Place, Gary, Indiana 46402 believe that McKay McCarty was a son of Jonathan and Ellen (McKay) McCarty, American born 1765 and 1766, Shenandoah County, Virginia was a son of David and Hannah (Kendrick) McCarty. This belief is based on the fact of the families being in the same area at the same time and the same given name as both's maiden name. Also, research indicates that Jonathan and Ellen children and given names have only been documented for 12. Most of which make the 7th known son of Jonathan. In a check of the available newspaper lists for the period 1812-1813, McKay or McCay could not be found. Newspaper lists for the period are only as reported in newspapers of the time and are not available for the full period. Newspaper records were not kept until 1820. Also, by his own statement, McCay was in Jefferson County, Indiana about 13 October 1819 and the U.S. Census of Adams Township, Shelby County, Indiana lists McKay as born in Kentucky.

Some facts provided by Patrick L. Chandler are:

1. The name McKay is the same as Ellen's maiden name. Several records indicate that McKay was born in Kentucky about 1766-1767. Jonathan was born in Virginia in 1746 and the last child (McKay) McCarty had 7 sons. Jonathan and Emily were in Nelson County, Kentucky from 1783 to 1788-89.

Some McCarty Family History

This family information is assembled and recorded so that it may be preserved and be available to other present and future family members.

The proof of the parents or place of birth of McKay McCarty born in 1797, died 14 July 1859, has not been documented. The old family tradition passed on by Reathel McCarty is that he was born in Ireland. Lawrence McCarty passed on the tradition that McKay, his great grandfather, was born in Ireland with the following information: "McKay McCarty, Jr., one of seven brothers, was born in Ireland in 1797. He left between 1812 and 1815, and landed on the East Coast of America. Going to Virginia, he married Nancy A. Lanham, then moved to Switzerland County, Indiana. From there they moved and settled in Noble Township, Shelby County, Indiana around an area known as Wilson Corner." Information provided by Evelyn E. (Hoban) Montgomery, a descendant of Elizabeth (McCarty) and Joseph Swinford, that has been passed on to her from her family (Lonnie and Alonzo Price) has McKay as a son of Jonathan and Edith (McKay) McCarty of the Darby and Hannah (Richardson) McCarty family. This information from Evelyn Montgomery seems to be the correct relationship as all available facts seem to show McKay as the son of Johnathan and Edith McCarty of the Darby McCarty family.

Some facts that have been determined: Records of Switzerland County, Indiana show that McKay McCarty married Nancy Lanham there 15 May 1819. In his application for a Bounty Land Claim made 9 November 1850, McKay stated that he volunteered in Jefferson County, Indiana on or about 13 October 1813 for a term of 12 months as a soldier in the War of 1812. Jefferson County joins Switzerland County, Indiana. (Page ix) (a34) The U.S. Census of Addison Township, Shelby County, Indiana lists McKay as born in Kentucky.

After many years of research, Patrick L. Chandler, 7500 York Ave. So., #831, Edina, Minnesota 55435 and James A. McCarty, 4174 Ellsworth Place, Gary, Indiana 46408 believe that McKay McCarty was a son of Jonathan and Edith (McKay) McCarty. Jonathan, born 29 April 1756, Shenandoah County, Virginia was a son of Darby and Hannah (Richardson) McCarty. This belief is based on the facts of the families being in the same areas at the same times and the same given name as Edith's maiden name. Also, research indicates that Jonathan had fifteen children but given names have only been documented for 12. McKay would make the 7th known son of Jonathan. In a check of the available passenger lists for the period 1812-1815, KcKay or McCay could not be found. Passenger lists for the period are only as reported in newspapers of the time and are not available for the total period. Passenger records were not kept until 1820. Also, by his own statement, McKay was in Jefferson County, Indiana about 13 October 1813 and the U.S. Census of Addison Township, Shelby County, Indiana lists McKay as born in Kentucky.

Some facts provided by Patick L. Chandler are:

1. The name McKay is the same as Edith's maiden name. Several records indicate that McKay was born in Kentucky about 1796-1797. Jonathan was born in Virginia in 1756 and he and Edith (McKay) McCarty had 7 sons. Jonathan and family were in Nelson County, Kentucky from 1785 to 1798-99

2. The Jonathan McKay family arrived in what is now Jefferson County, Indiana in 1799 or 1800. The area was part of Clark County, then Dearborn and finally Jefferson County. Edith (McKay) McKay had numerous relatives in Jefferson County. The Bible of Henry Lanham, father of Nancy (Lanham) McKay, shows a number of births and deaths of McKays which indicates that the McCartys, McKays and Lanhams were well known to each other. The birth year of McKay fits in the Jonathan family, perfectly.

3. McKay McKay enlisted in the First Ranger Battalion of the Regular Army 13 October 1813. This unit was composed of members picked for their woodman skills. It is doubtful that they would have enlisted a young inexperienced immigrant (McKay was only 16) as a scout. In the same unit were several sons of Jonathan and a number of related McKays.

4. On 24 December 1817, McKay McKay, along with Enoch McKay and several in-laws of the McCartys were charged with participation in a riot in Jefferson County. McKay McKay is shown in the 1820 Census in both Jefferson and Decatur County, Indiana along with Jonathan, Enoch and other members of the tribe. McKay purchased land from the U.S. Government in November 1820 just a few days after Jonathan had done the same thing. It is more likely than not that the extended family of Jonathan McKay all moved to Shelby and Decatur County, Indiana in 1820

James A. McKay, 4174 Ellsworth Place, Gary, Indiana 46408 has provided the following information pertaining to Henry Lanham:

"The father of Nancy Lanham was Henry Lanham, born 28 May 1761 and died 20 May 1849. Her mother was Eleanor (McKay) born 1765. If you or your daughters or granddaughters are interested in becoming a member of the OAR, Henry Lanham was a Revolutionary War Soldier. He enlisted 3 Feb. 1776 in 2nd Company, Maryland Troops. He is buried in the McKay Cemetery Braytown, Indiana.

Some information on the McKay family in Ireland is as follows: There are several spellings of the name as is the case with most- McCarthy, Carty, McCarter, McCart (Darby's marriage record has it Carty). The early McCarthys in Ireland were in Cork and Kerry Counties. Of 160 castles in Cork County, 26 were built by McCarthy Mar. Larry McCarthy has written The McCarthy Family written by M.J. O'Brian says 'The McCartys, one of the ancient families of Ireland, have furnished princes and men of eminence from McCarthy Mar down to Justin McCarthy.' The founder of the family was Cormac, King Munster, A.D. 483. (Burke declared that few pedigrees in the British Empire can be traced to a more exalted source than that of the Celtic House of McCarthy.)

Thirty of the Kings of Ireland and sixty-one of the saints descended from the McCartys, and to them belong the matchless glory of producing the first Christian King in Ireland.

The family of Darby McCarty as arranged from information compiled by Patrick L. Chandler and James A. McCarty.

Information unverified at this time is that Darby McCarty was in Grainger County, Tenn. for a short time and then moved to Sand Mountain, Alabama where he died.

The following is listed so as to help prevent possible confusion sometime by researchers: The Complete Book of ~Emigrants in Bondage 1614-1775 by Peter Wilson Coldham, 1988, on page 517 shows "Derby McCarty transported June 1764 on the Dolphin from Kent to America."

• The Swinford family in America is said to have emigrated from England to Virginia. Elisha, Joshua, John and James were in Cynthiana, Harrison County, Kentucky in 1800 as shown by the Census of Harrison County, Kentucky for 1800 as reconstructed, from Tax Records. Marie D. (Swinford) Neer states that they were brothers. She is a descendant of John Swinford, born circa 1770, possibly in Virginia. Some Swinford families were in Shelby County, Indiana before 1850 as shown by census records from the 1850 Shelby County, Indiana Federal Census. Family moves were from Isle of Wight County, Virginia to North Carolina and by some on to Harrison County, Kentucky before 1800. From there some went on to Illinois, and some to Indiana. There is a town by the name of Swinford in England and also one in Ireland.

John Swinford had the sons: Matthew~ Elisha Simpson, Samuel William.

Milton and Joshua. Circa 1845, son Elisha Simpson Swinford moved on to Illinois. Milton's son, Matthew married Lydia Ann MCCarty 15 Feb 1852 and Milton's son, Joshua, married Susan McCarty 8 Sep 1858.

Milton left Shelby County, Indiana and moved to Illinois in 1866.(a51)

It is at this point in HISTORY that the McCarty Clan and the Lee Clan became one. This becomes a major correction in prior Genealogy reports on each family since the link was not joined as to the family connection in prior computer reports. My mother was from the Swinford & McCarty family and my father was from the Lee & Amos family. W. L. Lee

The annual gathering of the members of the Swinford and McCarty families was held Sunday at Mounds Park, Anderson. The following committees were also named; Advertising, Stephen Fix, of Kokomo; Samuel Bray, Shelbyville, and Thomas and George Swinford, Anderson. Program, Mrs. Cora Sanders, Mrs. Sallie Spurlin and Wm. H. Swinford, all of this county.

BILLIE F. BOND

Dr. Billie Bond, associate professor emeriti of nursing at the Indiana University School of Nursing, died on August 17, 2007. She was greatly respected by students and colleagues alike for her teaching and mentoring abilities, most especially for the care she took with novice faculty. Dr. Bond taught for 31 years. She held three degrees from Indiana University: GN/BSN '56, MSN Ed '63, EdD '94.

Throughout her career Dr. Bond held active memberships in the National League for Nursing, the Indiana State Nurses Association and Alpha Chapter of Sigma Theta Tau International Honor Society for Nursing. She was also a lifetime member of Indiana University Alumni Association, receiving the Distinguished Service Award in 1997.

Dr. Bond is also remembered for her two other passions in life: entertaining and travel. For 25 years she welcomed family and friends to her cottage at Cordy Lake in northern Brown County. A world traveler, Dr. Bond toured the United States and nine countries of Europe, including five journeys in England, which she loved so much.

Concerned with the increase in incidences of diabetes, especially among young children, Dr. Bond created a resource center for students, healthcare providers and eventually for patients at the IU School of Nursing. Her generosity to the school was as evident as her passion for mentoring. Memorial contributions in her name may be made to the IU Foundation/School of Nursing for the Billie F. Bond Diabetes Education Center. Please contact Janet McCully at (317) 274-4293 or jmccully@iupui.edu for additional information.

SHARON K. HARRELL, MS

Professor emeriti Sharon Harrell died on August 26, 2007. For thirty-five years Mrs. Harrell taught students at the Indiana University School of Nursing, Bloomington campus. She was a longstanding student advocate and clinical mentor and was honored for her teaching by the BSN graduating class of 1981.

Mrs. Harrell gave just as much to the nursing community as she did to her students by serving as a member of the Alpha Chapter of Sigma Theta Tau International Honor Society for Nursing, the past president, treasurer and secretary of the Indiana University School of Nursing Alumni Association and volunteer to the Indiana State Nurses Association and Nursing 2000. She was honored by the U.S. Air Force with two Service Recognition Awards and by the American Red Cross, Monroe County Chapter, with the Dr. Cyrus Houshmand Award.

Professor Harrell's passion for nursing and dedication to her students will long be remembered. She was a true professional and gifted in her gracious way to develop others. University Dean Angela McBride celebrated this in 2002 by presenting Mrs. Harrell with an award to recognize her dedication and service to the Indiana University School of Nursing. Mrs. Harrell's most prized devotion and greatest enjoyment was time spent with her four grandchildren.

Well, I will chime in with some of the information that I have on Darby and James McCarty as I am descended from them and also from Castlewood John Fugate.

I definitely think that the James McCarty who married the Zirkle woman was a different man than James McCarty who was Darby's son.

Here are some selected items from my database that support this argument.

Janice Severns

6. Daniel2 Crume (Philip) was born in Frederick co., Virginia, January 27, 1758.(35) Daniel died after 1827 in Decatur co., Indiana. His father was a chain carrier for survey for Abraham Birkhead who had property adjacent to both Darby McCarty and John Fugate Junior at Manor of Leeds.

Per note from Ginger.

Also a Tav (Tavener?) Beale who signed a land document, as witness, of our James McCarty, married the widow of Jacob Hite, son of Jost (This establishes proximity to the Hites of Long Meadow, which was near to where the Darby McCarty lived).

(farther into the article)

James McCarty is mentioned in a Fincastle Co., Va., Road Order of 2 March 1774, concerning a road from the Town House on Holston to Castlewoods on Clinch. He appears on the Account Books of Thomas Amis of Big Creek (Present Hawkins Co., Tenn.) in 1783 and according to a letter in the Draper Manuscripts, Mrs. James McCarty was killed by Indians in February 1788. Traditionally she is said to have been a Miss Fugate.

Farther into the article, he says that "The familes of Darby, James Sr., and William McCarty are complete."

The following was in a later volume of The Virginia Genealogist under CORRECTIONS AND COMMENTS.

Mrs. James McCarty was killed by Indians in Washington District, Feb. 1788, according to Draper MSS, Tennessee Paper, 2XX28, Wisconsin Historical Society.

P. H. McCarty

Rutledge, Tenn.

Dear Sir:-

In reply to your inquiry concerning the McCarty family we have raked up all the information that uncle Frank can remember as we have nothing in shape of a record to go by.

My Great grand Father, James McCarty and two brothers, Benjamin and Darby settled at Mitchell Springs about 1777. James McCarty married in Virginia to a woman named Fugate. He later married into the Fain family and settled near Rogerville, Tenn.

Benjamin was the first District Judge in that part of the Country, he was appointed by the governor of North Carolina, sanctioned by the King of England, (Title George). The first murder trial was held under a big elm tree in his yard near Mitchell Springs about 1800. He and family moved to Indiana and settled near the present capitol of the State (date unknown).

Darby McCarty settled in Alabama on the south slope of Sand Mountain, I think in Blount County (date unknown).

James McCarty was a Civil Engineer and surveyor, and was also interested in mining. His wife (first) was killed and scalped by Indians in the spring of 1777, near Mitchell Springs while she was engaged in making maple sugar or syrup leaving my grandfather (John then about 3 months old) laying nearby in a cradle improvised from a sugar trough unharmed. He (my grandfather John) was taken by pack horse back to Virginia to his mother's people, (the Fugate) near the Roanoke and there grew to manhood. He returned to the same locality (Mitchell Springs) with his young wife, her maiden name was Mayse, early in 1800 and settled near the present site of Turley's Mill on the south side of the river. To this union was born 8 children, Rachiel, Isaac, James, Love, Stirling, Franklin, and two girls I do not remember their names. Rachiel married Dr. Satterfield and settled in the northwest part of Arkansas.

(Kayes note: The story of her being Killed by Indians when they attacked a boat is a matter of interpretation. Names and/or incidents are separated by semi-colons so the above story is likely true.)

Isaac married Mariah Williams and (spent) all his life in Grainger Co. Tenn.

James married into the Mayse family and settled in Eastern Missouri southwest of St. Louis.

Love married into the Robinson family and settled in Clark County Arkansas.

Frank married late in life in California. He was in the Sacramento Valley during the Gold Rush days. He had one son that we know of named Daniel, who was single the last we heard.

Stirling never married that we know of. He settled in Springfield Missouri.

One of the girls married H. H. Cuninghame and settled in Christian County Missouri. The other girl I do not know who she married.

James and family moved to Greene County Missouri 1838 or 1839, and the family Bible you speak of possibly was taken there at that time.

Hoping this information will be helpful to you in your work and sorry we cannot help you further, as to dates ect.

Uncle Frank is in good health able to help himself and he did most of the work raising 130 chickens this summer, gets up early every morning and makes as much noise around the house as ever. I work in the print shop in town most of the time.

Yours respectfully,

Roy Sunderland

Isaac F. McCarty was born in 1805 on June 18.

Uncle Frank was born July 9, 1848 and was 90 years old July 9, 1938 and in good health at the present writing.

Hoping this information will be of some help to you in your work and hoping to hear from you in the near future I remain

The friendship thus begun grew with years, the hunting season finding them constant companions in the Maine woods until Roosevelt went to ranching in Dakota when Sewall became foreman of the ranch. In recent years the friends have not been much together, but while on his trip through Maine in August last the president hunted up Sewall and had his old guide with him at several of his meetings and banquets. When they parted it was with the understanding that Sewall was to visit the White House soon, and now February has been chosen as the time.

The throng of callers was typical American, happy, fine looking and well dressed. The weather throughout the reception was so delightful that none suffered any discomfort or inconvenience from the long wait in line which many of them had. There was no hurrying and some times slight delays occurred as the President and Mrs. Roosevelt exchanged pleasantries with particular friends. Occasionally the president varied the formality of the receiving by inviting, as a special compliment, some personal friend or dignitary of rank to take place with the receiving party.

Funeral services will be held at the Ewing Mortuary at 2:00 p. m. Monday for Mrs. Dorothy Schnaitter Harrell, 36, 414 W. Taylor St., who authorities said took her own life here Friday.

Rev. Melvin Phillips will officiate at the services. Burial will be in Forest Hill cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home after 2:00 p. m. Sunday.

Shelbyville police were called to the residence at 414 W. Taylor St. at 4:45 p. m. Friday by Walter V. Schnaitter, the father of Mrs. Harrell. The body was found hanging in the basement, and Acting Coroner Dr. Wilson Dalton attributed death to suicide.

APPARENTLY Mrs. Harrell had knotted a plastic clothesline around her neck and over a gaspipe and had stepped off a bucket. Police said she had been dead for some time when the body was found.

She was an employee of the Pittsburgh Plate Glass plant here and had worked as a secretary in various Shelbyville business firms for several years. Her daughter called the plant Friday morning to report Mrs. Harrell was too ill to go to work.

MRS. HARRELL was born in Switzerland county, Ind., March 9, 1916, the daughter of Walter V. and Estella Pavey Schnaitter. She is survived by her father; a daughter Rita Rose Harrell and a sister, Mrs. Alma Scott, Shelbyville. She had lived in Shelbyville for 30 years. She was a member of the First Baptist Church.

William Harrell and family packed up last Sunday morning and went to the Acton camp meeting. At noon they received the cheerful intelligence that their home had been set on fire about 10 o'clock, as is supposed by an incendiary bent on robbery, and that the dwelling with all its contents was destroyed. Mr. Harrell's loss is estimated at about $700, on which he has an insurance of $400.

Byrum Harrell, it seems, married Sarah (Sally) Oldham Pertle Harrell first. A cemetery record of Brandywine Cemetery, Shelby Co, IN shows Sallie(Sally), wife of Byrum Harrell, died August 20, 1836, age 40 years. So, Sally was born 1796.

Byrum Harrell, after his first wife died, 1836, married in Smyth County, VA on 11 June, 1837, another Sally, namely Sally Hubble. Minister, Richard Roberts. This second wife, Sarah Hubble died August 1881, age 73, 2 mos. 27 days. So, she was born in 1808. This wife also buried at Brandywine Cem., Shelby Co., IN.

MARRIAGES

Albert Preston married Lindley Belle Williams October 30, 1880. She died January 26, 1906. August 27, 1908 he married Ollie Lisher who died March 10, 1927. No children by either marriage. Most of their estate was left to the Major Hospital in Shelbyville and there is an enlarged picture of them hanging in the Hospital.

Ida May was married to John Mack Ensminger October 3, 1883. They had five daughters - Jessie, Alta, Mag, Oleatha and Carolyn. Our father died December 15, 1929 from a stroke, being ill only one week. Following Mother's death November 15, 1927 I went home and lived with him until his death.

Eddy Vandoren married Jennie Norvell and she died August 21, 1902. He married Mary McClelland November 3, 1911. She left Fairland after Uncle Ed's death and died a few years later. No children by either marriage.

Frank Carey married Katherine Ridlin December 25, 1892 and to this union were born seven children - Ralph, Bessie, Mary, Ridlin, Morace, Thad and Robert. Aunt Kate died September 7, 1950. (I made quite a scene at their wedding - I wanted to eat at the first table, very much against the wishes of my parents, however, Mrs. Ridlin insisted they allow me to eat - so I occupied the chair at one end of the table and the minister had the chair at the other end - imagine how embarrassed my parents were).

Harry Elmer married Mina Van Arsdal December 24, 1893. They had two sons - James Russell and Fred W.

Curtis Orville married Ida Bassett and they had two sons - Earl and Virgil. Aunt Ida died when the boys were small. Uncle Curtis married Dolly Smith. Shortly after the second marriage, Earl and Virgil were taken and reared by Grandpa and Grandma Harrell. I was unable to find any dates. There were no children by second marriage.

Silas Harvey married Anna Shepples - she died in March 1895, no children. He married Daisy D. Lee November 6, 1897 and to this union four children were born, - Floyd, Marie, Cecil and Lucille. Aunt Daisy died April 4, 1939.

William Austin married Jessie Yost April 21, 1912 - no children.

Mary Gertrude married William Sexton October 3, 1905. Uncle Bill died March 25, 1913. He was drown in Columbus, Ohio during the Flood. He was a Probation Officer of the City of Columbus and with another officer was in a boat attempting to rescue people from the flooded area, the boat capsized and it was assumed the boat struck Uncle Bill. His body was found later lodged against a tree. Aunt Gertrude was in Fairland caring for Grandma Harrell who was very ill. She married Clarence Fraker November 24, 1921. Clarence died June 24, 1930. No children by either marriage.

A little history of Grandma's death. Clarence Fraker was selling automobiles and he came and took Grandpa, Grandma and Aunt Gertrude to Shelbyville in a new Oakland which Grandpa anticipated buying. On their return to Fairland they stopped at Uncle Ed's drugstore, Grandpa went to the grocery and Aunt Gertrude to the bakery. Uncle Ed came out to see the car and Clarence said, "Get in Ed and drive your Mother around the block". They had gone but a short distance to the interurban track and were hit by an interurban, throwing the car quite a distance down the track. Grandma was hurt badly and Uncle Ed's head cut. She was carried to Dr. Tull's home and Dr. Well was called. She was conscious and kept wanting to go home. They got a truck and loaded the sofa she was on and took her home, placing her in the living room where she died within a few hours - August 7, 1915.

While they were waiting at store before Uncle Ed got in the car our Father drove up and Grandma said, "Well, we got home safe".

Another incident connected with her passing which I have always remembered (am sure not too many of us are so particular), she would never leave her dishes, but Clarence came a little earlier than they expected him and they were just finishing their lunch. Aunt Gertrude insisted they leave the dishes and very much against Grandma's wishes they did. When we took her home that evening there were the lunch dishes not washed.

Aunt Gertrude being a widow at that time continued to live with Grandpa until his death.

Grandpa fell on the ice and broke his hip when he went to empty ashes. Aunt Gertrude had gone to town and told him not to go out, but he did. He always walked with a cane after his accident. We celebrated his 80th birthday on March 10, 1918. His birthday was March 9 which was on Saturday and most all of the family were present on Sunday. Uncle Frank was in Texas and because of a flood he did not get home. Grandpa failed with age and developed an asthmatic heart and was in bed a few weeks before his death. They had "Mother Teeple", a practical nurse, there and Jessie Ensminger Markland and her son John were living there and Jessie did the work. They were up with him at two A. M., and Aunt Gertrude said she would lay down by him. When Jessie came down stairs at six A. M., she noticed he was breathing and Aunt Gertrude was asleep. When she had breakfast ready and went to call her, Grandpa had passed on in his sleep, which was a beautiful way for him to go. He died February 6, 1920, not quite 82 years old.

While there is more information to be had on our earlier ancestors, it would take a great deal of research because the name was spelled differently and I spent one half day at the State Library, but could not trace it back.

It is with a great deal of pleasure I submit the above

His iron was valued at $300 and $400 insurance in the Commercial, which was promptly paid. There was no doubt but that the work of an incendiary but it was not known at the time who did the deed. It was, however, that Mr. Harrell finally suspected one of his neighbors, step-daughter of his sister, was then a widow named Williams, but since has married Mr. Eugene Brown of the same place. On Tuesday last, Harrell took out a search warrant which was placed in the hands of the sheriff, and that official proceeded to search the Brown residence. A large quantity of clothing goods belonging to Harrell was found on the premises and returned to the owner. In a matter of relationship, he refused to prosecute the woman and she was released. The report was, however, still doing a inquiry into the matter.

On Monday last, we reported that Mrs. Robert Brown, of Miami township, was accused of robbing and burning the house of her neighbor and relative, William Harrell. The report was correct and the case was commenced, and on Saturday last she was arrested by Deputy Sheriff James Magill, on a bench warrant. Being unable to furnish the required bail, she was taken to the jail and confined in jail to await trial.

After hearing the evidence the jury returned about noon and brought in a verdict, which was reported to court on Wednesday morning. William Harrell and family packed up last Sunday morning and went to the Acton camp meeting. At noon they received the cheerful intelligence that their home had been set on fire about 10 o'clock, and is supposed by an incendiary bent on robbery, and that the dwelling with all its contents was destroyed. Mr. Harrell's loss is estimated at about $700, on which he has an insurance of $400.

Last August, the residence of William Harrell, several miles north east of Fairland, was totally consumed by fire while the family were absent at camp meeting. His loss was estimated at $800 with $400 insurance in the Continental, which was promptly paid. There was no doubt that the fire was the work of an incendiary but it was not known at the time who did the deed. It seems, however, that Mr. Harrell finally suspected one of his neighbors, step-daughter of his sister. She was then a widow named Williams, but since has married Mr. Robert Bassett of the same neighborhood. On Tuesday last, Harrell took out a search warrant which was placed in the hands of a constable, and that official proceeded to search the Bassett residence. A large quantity of household goods belonging to Harrell was found on the premises and restored to the owner. On account of relationship, he refused to prosecute the woman and she was released. The next grand jury, however, will doubtless inquire into the matter.

 NOTES ON MADISON H HARRELL, GRANDSON OF BYRUM HARRELL,
 SOMETIMES KNOWN AS BYRUM BENJAMIN HARRELL *****

ommemorative Biographic Record of Madison H. Harrell, M.D., p. 911)

The Harrells are of English origin and are one of the Old Colonial families of Virginia. Rev. Benjamin Harrell, the grandfather of Dr. Madison, was in that State, and remained there until after his marriage, but about 1816 he joined the pioneers who were beginning to settle Indiana, and made his home in that section which he afterward helped to organize into Shelby county. He settled on a tract of forest land, where he ... up a fine farm of 200 acres, and put up building which were remarkably good ones for that day. He was a minister in what was known as the New Light Church and in the early days ... through the region round his home preaching in many places. His wife bore him the following children: William H; Granville I; Henderson Iney; a son, who died young, and Judge Wick. Rev. Benjamin Harrell lived to be seventy-six years old, passing away on his farm. He was a man of great force of character and a well known pioneer.

Judge Wick Harrell was born in Shelby County, July 25, 1840, and attended the public schools of that place. He chose farming as his occupation and was very successful in it, farming on the old homestead and caring for his parents in their old age. He still owns the old place, which is one of the finest farms in the State, and has added thereto 160 acres adjoining. He also owns considerable valuable residence property and real estate in Greenfield, Hancock county. He is now living in Greenfield, retired from active business interests, and is quite prominent in politics. He is a strong Democrat, but very independent in his views. In Shelby County, he served as county commissioner for six years, and is now a member of the board of education of Greenfield, where he does everything in his power to promote the cause of good schools. While in his early life Mr. Harrell was a member of the New Light Church, for many years past he has been connected with the Methodist Episcopal Church, and therein continues his life-long activity in church work. He is not only a moral supporter in a financial way, but is a licensed exhorter, class leader and trustee.

Mr. Harrell has been married three times. His first wife, Miss Loudema Drake, was born in Virginia, a member of the old families of that State. To this union were born: William H., George B., Madison H., William T., Charles, Elizabeth, Lide and Jennie. [Note: This reference has two children: missing Ira and Samuel.] Mrs. Harrell died at the age of thirty-seven, and Mr. Harrell married (second) Miss Josephine Day, who lived but two years. His third wife was Miss Mary Jenkins, and they have a daughter and a son, Vernice and Esta.

 NOTES ON DR. SAMUEL HARRELL, son of JUDGE WICK HARRELL AKA JW HARRELL *****

ityuary of Samuel Harrell, NOBLESVILLE DAILY LEDGER, Wednesday, September 9, 1931, p. 1:

Briefly abstracted, Dr. Samuel Harrell died at his home September 8, 1931. He was a physician and surgeon. Burial will take place in Crownland metry. Dr. Harrell was born near Shelbyville, Indiana April 17, 1869. He graduated from the University of Michigan Medical School in June 1893. One month later, he opened his practice in Noblesville. In 1909, he built his private hospital with his brother, Dr. Madison H. Harrell. It was known as the Harrell Hospital and Sanatorium. In 1915, the hospital was purchased by Hamilton County, was known as the Hamilton County Hospital, (and now known as Riverview Hospital).

He married Vivian Voss March 28, 1894 and had three sons: Dr. Voss Harrell of Detroit, Mich., Samuel Runnels Harrell of Indianapolis, and aurice T. Harrell of Detroit, Mich. They all survive. Also surviving are the following brothers and sisters: Dr. Chas. Harrell of St. Louis, G. B. Harrell of Shelbyville, Indiana, I. T. Harrell of New Castle, Indiana and Mrs. Ellis Beeson of Greenfield, Indiana. The notice goes on to list his achievements and the pallbearers. Towards the end, it says that he was the seventh son of the seventh son. "thou shalt heal the sick" and that's what he did!]

General Notice of Dr. Harrell, NOBLESVILLE DAILY LEDGER, Friday, September 11, 1931, p. 1, as described by Nancy A. Massey, Indiana Room attendant, Noblesville Southeastern Public Library:

Briefly abstracted, services were held at the First Presbyterian Church and were simple but impressive. Every detail the deceased had suggested was carried out. The notice goes on to describe the services, those in charge of tributes, pall bearers, and those that traveled a distance to attend. It also lists by name these additional survivors: Marion Jean Harrell, daughter of Dr. Voss Harrell, Evans Malott Harrell, Mary Eleanor Harrell, and Samuel Malott Harrell, children of Runnels Harrell.

We have a file on the HARRELL family which mostly contains information and research done on Madison Harrell. I will be adding copies of the above research to this file. There is also an article about the Harrell Hospital and a brief history of the Harrell family in the vertical files that Riverview Hospital put together. I have not yet had time to check the county histories, vital records, and cemetery listings to verify the above information presented in above articles. I can do this for you, but it may take some time as I have been swamped with research requests. Land records are maintained by the county Recorder's office in the old Courthouse. You would need to contact them for property records on this family. The Harrell house is registered as an historic landmark. There are bits and pieces about this house in the vertical files. If I may be of further assistance, please let me know.

(Harrell Family Notes)

Dr. Samuel Harrell was the 7th son of a 7th son and he was known to quote: "The Bible says "Thou shalt heal the sick". He and his brothers, Madison and Charles, left the family farm and put themselves through medical school. Samuel received his MD from the University of Michigan and later undertook post graduate studies in Surgery, Gynecology and Internal Medicine Ailgememe at the Krankan Haus Vienna Hospital in Austria. After graduate school, he and his brother Madison, settled in Noblesville, Indiana, where they built the first hospital in Hamilton County in 1907-1908 (opened, May 1908). Known as the Harrell Hospital And Sanatorium, Dr. Samuel Harrell and his brother employed a staff of five nurses, and it was unusual in that it served as a nurses' training school. Located at 148 N. 9th Street, Noblesville, Indiana, it was considered very modern for it's time (both in procedures and equipment). Dr. Harrell was credited with performing one of the first blood transfusions in Indiana and possibly one of the first appendectomies.

This facility was later sold to Hamilton County Jan 1, 1914 for $30,000 and administration was assumed by Mrs. Ida Goodlauder Webb, a registered nurse. She continued the nurse-training program and maintained two wards for county indigents. The hospital became known as the Riverview Hospital. Their interest in helping orphans began in the early 1900s when there was no facility for orphans in Hamilton County. Dr. Harrell soon became active in finding homes for orphans, his wife, serving as secretary of the Hamilton County Board of Children's Guardians.

He was active in many county organizations, was a charter member of the Order of Eagles No. 450 (founded Aug 6 1903), the Order of Elks No. 576 (rg. May 29, 1900) and the Modern Woodmen of America No. 3836, (org. Aug. 28, 1896). He was a 32nd degree Scottish Rite Mason and he was active in the Hamilton County Medical Society which held meetings in 1915 in the sun parlor of the hospital they built.

In 1898, the 7,200 sq. foot, 12-room, Harrell house (now on the Historic Register) was erected. It is a Queen Anne Victorian style house, with a multi-colored roof with cast iron cresting, polygonal tower capped by a cast-iron finial, wide, extended eaves with thick brackets, corbeled chimneys with crowning as, stained glass windows on all three floors and a wrap-around classic revival raised porch along the east and north sides. The port and portico are supported by Tuscan columns. The interior was created with molded plaster ceilings of anaglyph floral designs, ornately-carved, dark-stained oak woodwork and decorative tile work around five fireplaces. It is registered as an historic landmark. The architect is not known, but Mrs. William Voss (Mary Alice Voss), Dr. Harrell's mother-in-law, assisted in the design. A study of the home describes it thus: "The home is a fine example of well maintained architecture. In its early years, it served as one of the town's first medical facilities. For years... a recognizable orientation point for the community." At one time, the house had alterations: side of porch enclosed 1931; aluminum siding (mid 1970's); rear entry enclosed and created small prep. room (1981-82), and all utilities.) The home passed to Maurice and Rosalind Harrell in 1970. Unconfirmed research indicates that President Theodore Roosevelt stayed in the home in 1902, about the time that Dr. Harrell was known for also entertaining governors and other politicians.

Dr. Harrell owned the first automobile in Noblesville (an Oldsmobile).

Mrs. Vivian V. Harrell, 89, 399 N. 10th Street, daughter of a pioneer Noblesville family passed away this morning at Riverview Hospital where she had been a patient for 11 days.

The deceased was born Feb. 14, 1870, the daughter of William A. and Mary Miesse Voss. She attended schools here and was one of eight students to graduate 71 years ago from Noblesville High School with the class of 1888. She taught piano for six years before she was married March 28, 1894 to Dr. Samuel Harrell and they became the first couple to exchange wedding vows in the present Presbyterian Church. In 1900 the Harrells went to Europe when Dr. Harrell studied in Vienna. Dr. Harrell's death occurred in 1931.

Mrs. Harrell's father [NOTE THIS SHOULD READ HUSBAND] erected the first hospital in Hamilton county in 1909 and sold it to the county in 1917, making it one of the first county hospitals in the state.

Always holding a great interest during her lifetime in church, civic and club affairs, the deceased was an active Presbyterian since 1890, and was a member of the Westminster Circle and Missionary Society of the church. She was a regent of the Daughters of the Revolution which later merged to become DAR and a member of the Pioneers Society of Indiana and the Merry-Go-Round Club.

For twelve years she served as president of the Children's Board of Guardians, forerunner to the present Welfare Board.

Mrs. Harrell is survived by three sons; Maurice T. Harrell, Noblesville; Dr. Voss Harrell, Dearborn, Mich.; Samuel R. Harrell, Indianapolis, six grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at the Coaltrin Funeral Home at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Rev. William A. Huber, former pastor of St. Andrews Church in Indianapolis, will officiate. Friends may call at the funeral home after 1 p.m. Saturday. Interment will occur in Crownland Cemetery.

cepts and notes from an unidentified newspaper clipping Vivian Voss Harrell's "Harrell Family Record:"

FEB 23, 1796 - BIRTH OF WILLIAM W. WICK

There's many a man in Congress Hall.

Who's not unknown to fame.

There's many a good-looking one

With a very pretty name;

But among the crowd who gather there

There's only one we know

Whose initials are three W's

All standing in a row.

This was the first verse of a poem published in 1848 in a newspaper called the "Spirit of '76" describing William Watson Wick, a Democratic representative and an early judge to Southern Indiana, including Shelby County.

Judge Wick was a reverend and also rode the circuit in Southern Indiana until he resigned "to avoid starvation" from the low wages. He was assigned to the southern half of Indiana that was known as the "New Purchase."

His political career was accentuated by pithy speeches delivered in Congress that drew attention due to his literary style described as "a humor unstudied, genuine, and a richness and originality of figure which illustrated his point better than any amount of shouting." Once he gave a speech on the Oregon question and a Texas man, named Payne wrote to ask him to give an account of himself: In his reply, Judge Wick wrote:

"W. has committed much folly in his time-- the principle of which has been holding offices, writing rhymes, playing cards for money and paying other people's debts-- all of which was abandoned about the time he became a Democrat. At this present writing (1848), W. is 52 years of age; fair, a little fat, led the best-looking man about town--but that was 10 years ago--not to be sneezed at now. He has acquired a good deal of miscellaneous knowledge, is fun, looks serious, rises early, works much, has a decided penchant for light diet, humor reading, business, the drama, music, a fine horse, and the odds. W. owes nothing, and were he to die today his estate would inventory $800 or $900. He saves nothing of his per diem and mileage."

In 1839 he was chosen a member of Congress as a Democrat and successor to Col. Kinnard who had died when his steamboat blew up en route to Washington. In 1843 and 1847, Wick was nominated and elected to Congress, having been beaten in 1831 as an earlier candidate. In 1853 President Pierce appointed him postmaster in Indianapolis where he served for 4 years until he returned to his law practice. He was vocal in the issues concerning the Kansas-Nebraska bill and campaign of 1860, as well as the defeat of Douglas when he was referred to as an "able stumper."

Judge Wick became the author of the first legal treatise in Indiana, "A Treatise on the Law Relating to the Power and Duties of Justices of the Peace and Justices of the Peace and On Actions Cognizable in Justices Courts in the State of Indiana."

As interesting as his career was, Judge Wick is most known for presiding over the Pendleton Indiana trial of Hudson, an Indian murderer. Hudson became the first white man to be executed for the brutal murder of a small group of Indians, and the case is still studied in law schools today. Around 1824, a group of Seneca Indians consisting of two men (named Ludlow and Mingo), three women and four children were camped peacefully on the East side of Fall Creek in Madison County Indiana. A group of white men asked the Indians to help them find their lost horses and they agreed. The Indians were shot and one was beaten to death after he survived the shooting.

The murders caused great alarm among settlers who feared retaliation from the tribes, so a trial was promised. Judge Wick instructed the jury that the law knew no distinction 'as nation or color' and under the law the murder of an Indian was equal to that of a white man. The jury sentenced Hudson to murder in the first degree and a punishment of death by hanging. He escaped, but was found and hung on the North side of the Falls.

[Judge Wick was the namesake of Judge William Wick Harrell, my great great grandfather.]

(FAMILY NOTES)

Dr. Samuel (April 17, 1867 or 1869 - September 08, 1931) and Vivian Venus Voss Harrell (February 14, 1870 - June 05, 1959) built a log cabin in Noblesville, Indiana where their son, Samuel Runnels Harrell, was born on Thanksgiving Day November 25, 1897. They moved into the home which they were in the process of building, (now on the Historic Register) in 1898, shortly after he was born.

Dr. Samuel and Vivian Harrell, and his brother Dr. Madison Harrell (December 27, 1866 Noblesville, - October 12, 1918) who married Margaret Eudosa Huffman (January 11, 1867 - January 22, 1897) on February 15, 1887 in Shelby County, IN started the Harrell Hospital And Sanatorium, later known as the Riverview Hospital in Noblesville, which by some accounts, was the first hospital in Indiana. The house they built in 1897-8 in Noblesville, is known as the "Harrell House" and is on the historic register.

Dr. Samuel Harrell was credited with performing one of the first blood transfusions in Indiana and perhaps, the first appendectomy in Indiana. His great granddaughter, Mary Harrell-Sesniak of Fort Myers, Florida has a cassette tape recording of his son, Samuel Runnels Harrell, describing how his father saved his brother's life by performing an appendectomy, a procedure which was new in this country. The hospital, now known as Riverview Hospital, was founded by Dr. Samuel Harrell with his brother, Dr. Madison Harrell. They applied homeopathic techniques and were responsible for introducing new medical techniques to Indiana.

(Letter from a Mrs. Harley to Mrs. Dr. Samuel Harrell, postmarked Nebraska, 7/23/1897)

. This letter was to Vivian Venus Voss and Dr. Samuel Harrell of Noblesville, Indiana, -- Daniel Miesse reportedly was with the soldiers who kept the s lit while Washington crossed the Delaware River, a family story told in a letter from Daniel Miesse's granddaughter (transcript below).

My father told me that his father Daniel Miesse, who as you likely know was the first Miesse in America, was a soldier in the Revolutionary War. He belonged to the Pennsylvania Militia, quite a number of whom were Germans like himself.

On the night of Dec. 25th, 1776, Washington with his troops crossed the Delaware River and on the morning of the 26th surprised a body of Hessians at Trenton). Before crossing over he summoned one of his Generals and asked him to bring to him 12 trusty reliable men as he wanted them for some important business. Daniel Miesse was one of the twelve selected and brought before Washington who commissioned them to remain on the Pennsylvania side of the Delaware during the night while he and the rest of the army crossed over. These twelve men were to keep the camp fires burning until daylight so as to deceive the enemy. At daylight, they were to make good then escape in every direction, and if possible to get to their homes until a suitable time to rejoin the army. They remained at their post all night - and how well they did their work, history will tell, for Washington succeeded in crossing the Delaware unknown to the enemy.

Father said ... the Tories in the neighborhood raised a report that these men had deserted when they came home, which of course was not the case. I do not know what company or Regiment he was in. The only thing that can be done is to send to Washington D.C. and draw the records...

It might be probably(e) that Daniel did not return to the army after his release of Gen. Washington; in that case it might make a difference in the record at Washington.

...I am pleased to hear that your Grandma and Jacob are well & that their crops good, and that your Ma is well. I was just turning it in my mind what relation you were to the old gent. Daniel M was your grandfather Miesse's grandfather which makes you his great great grandchild, or in other words, he was your great great grandfather.

He was my grandfather. Very few of my first cousins are living. Sarah Secose(?), Carrie Sevose's (?) grand-mother is one of them! I do not know whether she is living yet.

I shall have to close, as there is a call for me to come and sit with a sick lady for the afternoon.

Kindest Regards to your husband And love to yourself & Mother.

Yours,

?Eamie or ?Carrie Harley

is a letter written by Alta (Ensminger) (Pruitt) Trees to Vivian Venus Voss Harrell in Noblesville. It was included in the Harrell Family Record.
a was the daughter of Ida May A Harrell and Jack Mack Ensminger granddaughter of William H Harrell and Loretta Morris Colglazier great granddaughter of Byrum Harrell and his second wife, Sally Hubble yne, Alta's granddaughter was born in 1926; this must refer to a Harrell or Ensminger reunion circa 1941.

Dear Vivian:

August 8th

Enjoyed your letter and all about the reunion - thanks for the piece out of the paper - quite a number you have in the service - I will list in this letter the names of the ones we have in service.

We had our reunion - there were 41 present - had a nice day - the three boys that are living were there - Uncle Frank, Harry and Uncle Bill. It was a nice day and not too hot to be terribly uncomfortable.

I think it is nice that Jayne is coming to be with you - she will keep you company - I imagine she will be with you just of week ends this winter - nice she is entering I. U.

I am trying to get things squared around so I can get a vacation of a few days - want to leave here Aug. 19th and go up to Milwaukee to see my friends but will have to be back by the 24th, but am grateful for that much time. I did want to go visit Betty at Dayton over the Labor Day holiday but am not sure that I will get to go - our force has been cut to a very low ebb here and it does not look as tho there will be any one but me after the last day of August - our program is winding up unless we get something more - I now do work for about five men and am pretty busy most of the time - but I am willing to make a change tomorrow if we could only get this terrible war over and get our boys in safe land or at home.

Jack's boy Bob will finish about the 12th and will then go over - he is a Navigator and loves it but in such a danger. It keeps one so worried and torn up most of the time that it is hard to keep going.

About these people:

I believe Mae to be Mae Ensminger w/o Wray Timney, but need this verified. She would then be the d/o Ida May A Harrell and John Mack Ensminger. Jack in these two cases would be a different person -- a woman -- Oleatha Ensminger w/o Allen C Bennett. Jack (Oleatha) was also a d/o Ida May Harrell and John Mack Ensminger.

Betty would be Betty E. Bennett d/o Oleatha "Jack" Ensminger and Allen C Bennett.

Virgil Harrell (aka William Virgil Harrell) would be s/o Curtis Orville Harrell & Ida M Bassett and the husband of Sylvia Helms.

Everard A Comstock was the husband of Ruby June Harrell, the daughter of William Virgil Harrell and Sylvia Helms. Her sister, Dorothy H. Harrell, was the wife of Carean U Pike.

I am not totally certain of the relationship of John R. Coffin and Uncle Harry.
